About Us

The Long Eaton & District Arts Council supports the work of the Duchess Theatre and Chatsworth Arts Centre which is a multi-purpose arts venue in the heart of Long Eaton.

The venue is totally organised and run by volunteers and is Long Eaton's premier live arts and entertainment facility. Located close to Nottingham and Derby, our aim is to facilitate the highest quality entertainment and promote arts in all its forms.

Becoming a member

Why not also volunteer with us:

In addition to supporting us through membership why not also consider spending some time with us as a volunteer

Our venue is fully run by volunteers who undertake a variety of roles including, covering refreshment areas, running our regular Saturday coffee morning, duty managers and maintaining the theatre.

Volunteering with us gives you an opportunity to learn skills, support a great community venue, meet new people and gain confidence.

For more information on our volunteering opportunities and getting to know us why not come along and speak to one of our team at our Saturday coffee morning 10:00 – 12:00 or email our volunteer coordinator at info@duchess-theatre.com

Saturday Coffee Morning
Join us every Saturday
From 10:00 am – 12 noon

*No need to book in advance*

The theatre box office is also open during this time for ticket sales & enquiries
